STATEMENT OF PRIVACY PRACTICES

My office is dedicated to protect the privacy rights of my patients and the confidential information entrusted to me. I may, from time to time, amend my privacy policies and practices, but will always inform you of any changes that might affect your rights.

PROTECTING YOUR PERSONAL HEALTHCARE INFORMATION

Your personal health information will never otherwise be given to anyone, even family members, without your written consent. You, of course, may give written authorization for me to disclose your information to anyone you choose, for any purpose.

My offices and electronic systems are secure from unauthorized access and your records are always protected.

The HIPAA officer for this practice is Dr. Michael Ascher.

I thank you for being a patient in my office. Please let me know if you have any questions concerning your privacy rights and the protection of your personal health information.

Michael Ascher, M.D.
